

Are you looking for advancement to firm leadership and an equity stake in a firm? Do you have diverse experiences, exceptional project designs, leadership attributes, client cultivation abilities? VHGArchitects, with a specialization in education, commercial, and recreational projects, is a regional leader with a collaborative design process and a strong record of award winning projects and long-term clients.

Positions available for a New Mexico licensed senior design architect/project director with superior skills and abilities, experience with large-scale projects, and at least 12 years of work experience. Also open, a position for unlicensed architect with a minimum of 5 years experience and Revit/BIM production. Local travel and physical activity routine. LEED accreditation a plus.

If you are intrigued please submit a cover letter and resume. All inquiries kept confidential. Send resume to vhgarchitectnm@gmail.com